

SUFFRAGISTS TO PETITION WILSON

Congressional Union Would Have President Indorse Anthony Amendment.

RALLY CALL IS SOUNDED

Miss Alice Paul Sends Out Letters Urging Support in Votes Campaign.

The Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage has sent an urgent call to the suffragists of the nation to rally to the support of the Susan B. Anthony suffrage amendment.

Miss Alice Paul, chairman of the executive committee of the Congressional Union, addressed yesterday the following letter to suffragists:

"In ten days the Sixty-fourth Congress opens. We ask you to join with us in the effort to secure the submission by this Congress of the Susan B. Anthony amendment, enfranchising women.

"In the last Congress the suffrage amendment received the immense vote of 171 in the House and failed by only eleven of the two-thirds necessary to carry it in the Senate. This was accomplished mainly by the women of the District of Columbia, with little money and little work outside. If the women of the whole country will join with the District of Columbia, success will be assured.

"With nearly 4,000,000 women voting in the West, with one-fourth of the Senate, one-sixth of the House, and one-fifth of the electoral vote coming from suffrage States, nothing can prevent the success of the national amendment if we unite in its support.

"We have but to consider the failure of the referendum campaigns in New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, and Massachusetts to realize the wisdom of concentrating our strength upon the national government rather than dissipating it in many State referendums.

"We appeal to all those who have never before helped in the national work to throw in their strength now. You can help us at this moment:

"First, by writing to President Wilson to urge him to recommend, in his message to Congress, the submission of the national suffrage amendment; second, by making the suffrage demonstration at the opening of Congress as successful as possible; and third, by sending financial help immediately. We need $100,000 rather than Congress open. Every woman can give at least $1 to the national suffrage campaign. We beg you to give all that you can and to give at once.

Several thousand workers will gather here December 6 to 13, inclusive, to make a dramatic demonstration on Congress for the Anthony amendment.

BANKERS TO HEAR OF "THRIFT"

Harrison Will Discuss Idea at Their Meeting This Afternoon.

The "thrift" movement in the banking business will be explained to representatives of the local chapter of the American Institute of Banking by Milton W. Harrison, secretary of the savings section of the American Bankers' Association, at the local chapter room, 1214 F street northwest, at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.

The movement is primarily for savings bank men, but is of interest to trust companies and commercial banks. The public affairs committee of the local chapter is expected to take up the movement soon. Mr. Harrison will be in Washington only a few hours.

Says He'll Go with Ford If Women Are Barred

Special to The Washington Herald.
Cincinnati, Nov. 27.—Roger Babson, economist and writer, wired Henry Ford today that he will go along with him on his peace expedition to Europe on one condition only. Women must be barred, he says.

"Women," observed Babson, "do not do much for us in Europe as they do here. There is more chance of accomplishing something if it is an all-man trip."

SUFFRAGE VAN SQUAD PLANS MANY MEETINGS

Workers for Cause Will Address Artisans and Clerks—Pretty Girls to Assist.

Within the next week workers in the great suffrage van that has been traversing the streets of Washington will speak to groups including practically every class of working men in the District. Special meetings have been arranged for evenings this week at school parlors, plumbers, painters, machinists at the Washington Navy Yard, theatrical stage employees, brewery workers, steam engine men, and molders there will also be special meetings for clerks and stenographers.

All week the big van will be on the streets from 11 o'clock in the morning until 11 o'clock at night. The arrangements to speak to the working men were made by representatives of the Congressional Labor Union by Mrs. Grace Benefield Cotterill.

With Mrs. Cotterill will be Mrs. Louis Dickinson, of Ohio.

In addition to the evening meetings for working men and the special groups, the van will be at the doors of government departments each afternoon during the week. At the noon hour the van will be at the points where crowds assemble, including Fifteenth street and New York avenue, Fourteenth and F streets, Seventh street and Pennsylvania avenue, and Ninth and P streets.

A feature of the van this week will be a group of pretty girls, who will distribute literature regarding the coming national convention of the Congressional Union for Women Suffrage.

HAITI MAKES FORMAL APOLOGY TO FRANCE

Executive Sorry that Mob Broke Into Legation and Salute to French Flag Is Fired.

Formal apology has been made by the republic of Haiti to France for the attack by a mob, on July 28, on the French Legation at Port au Prince. The Navy Department was so informed yesterday by a dispatch from Admiral Capois, commanding the American squadron in Haitian waters.

The report stated that on Thanksgiving Day the President of Haiti personally called on the French Minister and formally apologized, after which the Haitian shore battery fired a salute of twenty-one guns to the French flag and the French cruiser Des Cartes, in the harbor of Port au Prince, returned the salute, gun for gun, with the Haitian flag at the mainmast.

The violation of the French Legation occurred during the course of a popular uprising, following the action of the former Haitian President in executing a large number of political prisoners. The Haitian President himself took refuge in the French Legation, but the mob, breaking into the building, dragged him forth and shot him on the lawn.

Mrs. John J. Keady, 307 N street northwest, her two daughters, Ellen and Anna, her son, John J., Jr., and a party of friends, automobile to New York on Friday to attend the Army-Navy game. They will return tomorrow.

OHIO PREACHERS PAID DAY LABORERS' SCALE

Special to The Washington Herald.
Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 27.—The rural church in Ohio is in decay. One out of every nine in this State has been abandoned in the past few years. One-third are increasing membership and two-thirds have either ceased growing or are dying.

This information is contained in a report on rural church survey made by investigators of the Ohio Commission on Church and Country Life.

An abstract of the report, made public today, contains the additional information as to the condition of the country church:

Eighty-three per cent of the rural churches in Ohio have less than 100 members. Only 6 per cent have individual preachers. A large proportion of the clergyman receives the same wages as day laborers. Less than 40 per cent of the rural population are church members.

Practically all of the downtown merchants have signified their intention of putting out special displays of goods and arranging for unusual lighting methods. Clothing and household goods merchants are working vigorously with Charles J. Columbus, secretary of the Retail Merchants' Association, who is planning the "dress-up and fix-up" week.

In addition, dealers in electrical goods will announce bargains in their appliances, a special feature for next week. Another feature of the week to advertise electricity and its uses will be a parade of more than 100 automobiles and several hundred electricity workers, according to the plans of a committee headed by John C. McLaughlin, chairman of electrical dealers.

Many Novel Signs. Prizes will be offered for the best electrically illuminated vehicle, the motor having the most effective advertising display and the car having the most unique display. Judges are P. T. Moran, president of the Chamber of Commerce, E. C. Brandenburg, president of the Board of Trade, and one of the District Commissioners.

Many novel signs are promised for the automobile procession. The piano house of E. F. Drown & Sons will enter a piano, electrically operated, which will play popular airs as it is hauled in the line of parade, it is said.

Assault on the Retail Merchants' Association and the committee of electrical dealers toward making the week's programs a success is the Mid-City Citizens' Association, composed largely of merchants along Seventh street, Ninth street, F street, G street and Pennsylvania avenue.

The Retail Merchants' Association will celebrate the inauguration of the whole event tomorrow evening at the Raleigh Hotel with a gathering of the membership in its entirety. Some very important matters will be discussed. The interests of the National Capital will be considered.

Charles F. Nesbitt, superintendent of insurance of the District, will address the merchants on fire insurance. It is announced that Mr. Nesbitt will come prepared to answer any question that the business men of the District may have in reference to fire insurance.

Cars to Carry Signs. With Christmas but four weeks away the merchants are going to give consideration to the plans of the special committee on the show early for Christmas. A ten-minute headway between Brookland and Fourth street Lines.

More cars will be put in operation on the Brookland and Fourth street Lines of the Washington Railway and Electric Company beginning tomorrow. The company notified the Public Utilities Commission of this fact yesterday, when it filed the following improved schedule:

"A ten-minute headway between Brookland and Fifteenth and G streets northwest, instead of the twelve-minute headway."

"A five-minute headway between North Capitol and W and Fifteenth and G streets northwest, instead of the six-minute headway."

"A ten-minute headway between Georgia avenue and W streets northwest and Fourteenth and H streets southwest, instead of the twelve-minute headway."

"A five-minute headway between Fifth and G streets northwest and Fourteenth and H streets southwest, instead of the six-minute headway."

Several Hundred Bottles of Wines and Liquor Smashed, Following Blow-out.

While trying to turn Thomas Circle last night about 9:30 o'clock in an automobile delivery car belonging to Taylor Grimes, wholesale wine and liquor dealer, 1125 Fourteenth street northwest, Agnew Smith, of 1710 Fifteenth street northwest, had a miraculous escape from injury, the left front tire blowing off and the machine turning over on its top.

Smith was proceeding south in Fourteenth street. When he reached Thomas Circle he started to turn. The left front tire blew out with a loud noise and the machine turned completely over, young Smith being hurled several yards from the car. Except for a few bruises he was uninjured.

Several hundred bottles of wine and liquor, which were in the wagon, were smashed, as well as the glass and the shield and the lamp. The car was righted with the help of pedestrians, who ran to the scene of the accident. After being cranked the truck appeared little worse for its experience.

BUILDERS' EXCHANGE TO RESUME SPANISH CLASS

American Business Men Will Be Fitted for Commercial Dealings with Southern Republics.

The Builders and Manufacturers' Exchange announced yesterday that its class in Spanish, adjourned for the summer, would be resumed Thursday night. The class will be taught by S. J. Macfarren, who taught the students last year.

The class is conducted by the exchange in co-operation with a country-wide endeavor on the part of similar organizations to fit American clerks for service in South America. It is said the field in South America for men and women is extremely large with a knowledge of Spanish being remarkably attractive, but that even larger opportunities will be presented when the United States extends its trade with the Southern American continent.

About fifteen students were in the organization's class last year. The cost of its operation is maintained by the exchange. Both members of the exchange and their clerks were among the students.

son of the Bureau of Mines, and Mrs. Payne, who were married on November 25, are spending their honeymoon at Atlantic City.

THIRTY-SEVEN PLANS FINISHED

Electrical Prosperity and "Dress-up, Fix-up" Campaigns Start Tomorrow.

BARGAINS TO BE FEATURE

Automobile Parade Will Show Scores of Beautifully Lighted Vehicles. Will Offer Prizes.

Committees arranging for the programs for Electrical Prosperity Week and "dress-up and fix-up week," to begin tomorrow, report that details of their arrangements are practically complete. The two programs are being handled by different organizations, but the two bodies are co-operating.

Practically all of the downtown merchants have signified their intention of putting out special displays of goods and arranging for unusual lighting methods. Clothing and household goods merchants are working vigorously with Charles J. Columbus, secretary of the Retail Merchants' Association, who is planning the "dress-up and fix-up" week.
